From the Principal

Walk Safely to School Day
We’re joining in with Walk Safely to School day, Friday 20th May. Children are encouraged to walk from either of two mustering points, Gordonvale Council Depot (Highleigh Road) or the Caltex Service Station (cnr Griffin and Riverstone Road). Staff and volunteers will accompany the walkers and when they arrive at school will be treated to breakfast. Come and join us!

The national Walk Safely to School Day team would appreciate your feedback about how your children come to and from school. This is a national survey and they’re looking for as many responses as possible to provide solid data to governments of all levels. Follow the Link to complete the survey: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WSTSD2016

Mother’s Day Stall
I hope you had a terrific Mother’s Day with your family a fortnight back. Our P&C appreciate your support of one of the major annual fundraisers, the Mother’s Day Stall. We had a lot of happy children going home on the Friday with gifts they had purchased. We hope they arrived home safely and got to you.

NAPLAN
Our year three and five students completed the annual NAPLAN tests last week with minimal fuss. We’ll have results back later in the year and will be able to share them with you. Across Queensland the compilation of NAPLAN results is sufficient to show distinct trends and patterns. Overall, there is a match between report card results in English and Mathematics and NAPLAN results. Interestingly, there is also a strong correlation between Science results and NAPLAN, that is, a student achieving well in NAPLAN, also achieve good grades on their report cards for Science.

Feedback
We really want some feedback about the new communication options we’ve implemented this year. I’d appreciate you taking the time to click on the link below and answering 5 simple questions about SCHOME – our fortnightly newsletter.
https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/G7DRHF8

High Five
I’ve been reminding children of the first step in our High Five frequently of late.

1. Talk friendly
2. Talk firm
3. Walk away
4. Warn
5. Report

It’s occurred to me that many children consider this guide to be something that you only need to refer to when someone is bothering you, or there’s about to be an argument or fight. For these children the last one or two steps are what they’re most likely to remember, if at all.

The first three steps in this guide are a solid mantra for all interactions, every day. It reminds me of a saying that’s been around forever – at least since my grandmother’s day.

“You can catch more flies with honey than with vinegar.”
A quick search in the Wikipedia, Wiktionary reveals this means –

“It’s easier to persuade others with polite requests and a positive attitude rather than with rude demands and negativity.”

The interactions that lead to conflict are often those where we are trying to persuade someone in some way:

- I want to play with you / I don’t want to play with you
- I want you to share with me / I don’t want to share with you
- I want to listen to you / I don’t want to listen to you
- I want others to laugh at my jokes, think I’m funny / I don’t want you to laugh or think I’m funny
- I don’t want to complete the set task / I want to complete an alternate task

We can’t always have our own way. If we did, others would always give in and not get their way, and likely not feel so good. So learning to graciously accept a knock back is a valuable lesson.

Children need adults to model using polite, friendly language and they need help to practise the same ways of talking. Polite, inclusive, friendly interactions will be the foundation of polite, inclusive and friendly relationships.

Children Left Unattended

Last week I was prompted to find out what the law says about children being left alone. I found two useful references – the first from Queensland Police and the second from Slater and Gordon Lawyers. I thought all parents might be interested.

Police would like to remind parents that under Queensland law, it is illegal to leave a child under 12 unattended for an unreasonable time without making reasonable provision for the supervision and care of the child.

Legislation: Queensland Criminal Code Act 1899 (QLD) - Section 364A

1. A person who, having the lawful care or charge of a child under 12 years, leaves the child for an unreasonable time without making reasonable provision for the supervision and care of the child during that time commits a misdemeanour. Maximum penalty—3 years imprisonment.

2. Whether the time is unreasonable depends on all the relevant circumstances.

In Queensland and Victoria particularly, these laws mean if you leave a child unattended, whether it be in a car or at home, and that child is left for an unreasonable time and no reasonable provision for the supervision and care of that child has taken place, then ultimately you have committed a misdemeanour.

Most people may think that’s harsh, but what we need to do, is give due regard to the word ‘unreasonable’ and how it applies in each case… Follow the link for the rest of Emma’s discussion. Emma Aldersea, Slater and Gordon Lawyers.

Parenting Articles

Each SCHOME I add a short article I hope you’ll find of interest. The articles come from a publication, Parenting Insights, by Michael Grose

This fortnight, Michael Grose, our Parenting writer has provided us an article that gets us thinking about how to help move an anxious child, a worryer, to a confident child, a warrior. Even if you’ve not got an anxious child, the tips are useful in dealing with the situations that arise when we all feel worried.

Dear Parents,

Firstly, I would like to thank all of you for the positivity demonstrated upon my return. It is indeed a pleasure to return to the Gordonvale Community setting where students, staff and parents are always extremely welcoming. Secondly I need to thank Mr Allen, Mrs Janse and Ms Reichardt for their contributions in my absence.

The athletics carnival is fast approaching and students are participating in opportunities to learn and develop skills and proficiencies in preparation for this event.

Information for 100 Club participants for term 4, 2015 and term 1, 2016 will be shared in the next couple of weeks. Congratulations to the students who have achieved this magical milestone.

Regards,

Mr Damien Forsyth-Stewart
Deputy Principal

NAPLAN commenced this week for our Year 3 and 5 students. This presents another opportunity for us to recognise the strengths and deficits in student learning and implement a teaching response to address and strengthen what we find. This process reflects a learning journey resulting in better outcomes for our kids.

The athletics carnival is fast approaching and students are participating in opportunities to learn and develop skills and proficiencies in preparation for this event.

Regards,

Deputy’s Desk

Lloyd Perkins

Explicit Teaching

On Thursday afternoon I was privileged to attend the last of 4 Explicit Teaching Modules presented by Anna Caveliere and Matt Allen. Explicit Teaching is a regional priority and has been proven to increase students’ progress by up to 2 years.

Mrs Marie Janse,

Head of Curriculum

The Module that I attended was on Consolidations. Consolidations occur during Literacy and Numeracy lessons and usually last up to 20 minutes. Consolidations are a way for students to move skills and concepts that have been explicitly taught from short to long term memory. There are 3 components of a consolidation – Recite, Recall and Apply.

An Example of consolidations for times tables may look like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Recite</th>
<th>3 x 1 = 3, 3 x 2 = 6, 3 x 3 = 9 …..</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Recall</td>
<td>3 x 1 =? 3 x 2 =? …</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apply</td>
<td>There were 3 boys, each boy had 6 pencils. How many pencils were there all together?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Positive Behaviour Learning Team

Would you like to have your opinions heard? Well we would love to hear them!

The ‘Effective Behaviour Support’ or EBS Survey is an annual assessment of the effectiveness of the behaviour support systems within our school. The survey examines the status and need for improvement of these systems and is then used in the development of the annual action plan for the ‘Positive Behaviour for Learning’ (PBL) team.

We understand that your time is valuable and have devised a quick and simple survey to ensure that your voice is heard. Please complete the survey at:

Chaplain News

Miss Amy Meehan, School Chaplain

“I’m really excited to have just attended professional development to become a Companion. I am now able to facilitate the Seasons for Growth educational program!

‘Seasons for Growth’ is a small group loss and grief education program. The program strengthens the social and emotional wellbeing of children aged 6 -12 who are dealing with significant loss or change. This may include the death of a loved one, parental divorce or separation, the experience and aftermath of natural disaster, moving house or school, as well as many other life changes and losses.

As a trained Companion I’d support small groups of 4-7 children in learning new ways to share, think about and respond to the changes and losses in their lives. Children learn that they are not alone in dealing with the effects of change, loss and grief. They build their understanding and communication, decision making and problem solving skills as part of a supportive peer group.

The Seasons for Growth Program takes place over a structured eight week period filled with peer-to-peer learning opportunities. The story of the seasons is used to explain the cycles of life, including change and loss, and provides a valuable metaphor for children to explore and understand their own story.

It is offered over three levels: Level 1 (6-8y/o) Level 2 (9-10y/o) Level 3 (11-12y/o). Please note it is recommended siblings do not attend the program together.

I am hoping to get started by running one Level of the program in the second half of the year. If this sounds like a program that might benefit your child please contact me on ameeh17@eq.edu.au and I can provide you with more information. “

Kindest Regards,

Amy Meehan

Doctor, Doctor!

Last Friday afternoon Dr Damien spoke to us about our bones. He told us how to keep our bones healthy by eating and drinking foods that have calcium, by exercising and by taking in some sunlight. He also showed us a Whale’s vertebrae. It was much bigger than ours! We really enjoyed his talk. Thank you Dr Damien!

Five Citizens

Our school vision is centred on creating active and informed citizens for the 21st century. Our vision identifies five key areas for building the citizenship skill of our students. This week we demonstrate:
Healthy
Let’s All Be Active!

Over the past 3 weeks, 6A has been studying a Health unit titled “Let’s all be active”. This unit culminated in them having to design and teach the class a new game to promote being active. The games were a great way to test their ability to lead the class as well as put their learning into action. They were all very excited to show what they had prepared and had fun learning from each other.

Kindest regards,
Helen Wilkie - Local Relief Teacher (LRT)

The Library has been buzzing with happy students playing with the blocks and other games this week. If you have any old blocks not being used and looking for a new home we would greatly appreciate them.
